Summerlin Hospital Hosts 2014 Sculpture Collection

"Celebration of Life" Sculpture Marks First New Design in Four Years

Las Vegas, NV (August 27, 2014) – The staff at Summerlin Hospital Medical Center is helping to raise funds for the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital Las Vegas Chapter by displaying 10 sculptures that were designed by Summerlin-based sculptor Dorit Schwartz, and painted by professional local artists. The artists give "life" through their one-of-a-kind vision.

The sculptures, which debuted at The Smith Center earlier this year, are now on display within the Healing Garden, the front entrance, and the surgery entrance at Summerlin Hospital.

"We are pleased to host these beautiful works of art," said Rob Freymuller, CEO/Managing Director of Summerlin Hospital. "The artists' interpretations are all different, all stunning and provide an uplifting addition to our Healing Garden."

To view the sculptures in person, visit Summerlin Hospital at 657 Town Center Drive, Las Vegas, NV 89144. To view the art online, visit <http://stjudelasvegas.org/hearts-of-las-vegas/2014-collection/>

ABOUT ST. JUDE CHILDREN'S RESEARCH HOSPITAL

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is leading the way the world understands, treats and defeats childhood cancer and other deadly diseases. St. Jude has the world's best survival rates for the most aggressive childhood cancers, and treatments invented at St. Jude have helped push the overall childhood cancer survival rate from 20 percent to 80 percent since we opened more than 50 years ago. St. Jude is working to drive the overall survival rate for childhood cancer to 90 percent in the next decade. St. Jude freely shares the breakthroughs we make, and every child saved at St. Jude means doctors and scientists worldwide can use that knowledge to save thousands more children. Families never receive a bill from St. Jude for treatment, travel, housing and food – because all a family should worry about is helping their child live. Join the St. Jude mission by visiting stjude.org or following St. Jude on Facebook or Twitter.
